A Tribute to Dr. B.P. Rao by the Hon. Secretary

Eighty nine years old Dr. B.P. Rao (Badida Padmanabha Rao) passed away peacefully in his sleep in the early hours of 11th March, 2015 at his son's residence in Mumbai.

Dr. B.P. Rao was born in 1926 at Machilipatnam. He did his B.Com Hons. From Andhra University and M.Com., L.L.B., Ph.D. from Lucknow University. He joined Osmania University as a lecturer in commerce in 1949.

Dr. Rao was the Principal of the Prestigious Nizam College from 1984 to 1986 till his retirement.

Dr. B.P. Rao was a great educationalist – A very learned man with an extraordinary gift of memory. I would be amazed to hear from him about each of his students, their name and year of study, and in many cases even their present occupation. He has written eight books on Merchantile Law.

Dr. B.P. Rao selflessly served the Hyderabad Children's Aid Society since 1960. He was the Hon. Treasurer from 1960 to 1990 when he honestly and efficiently managed all money matters. During his tenure money grew and many essential projects were taken up.

After the sad demise of Mrs. Tehminabai Dhage in 1990 Dr. Rao became the Hon. Secretary of Hyderabad Children's Aid Society and held this Post till 1998. During this period he started the V.K. Dhage Special Coaching Center for the 150 inmates of Radha Kishan Homes to impart value based education.

He then became the Vice-President of Hyderabad Children's Aid Society in 1998. Though he shifted to his native place in Machilipatnam his moral support and guidance was always with us. Till the end the children and staff of the Society were close to his heart. He was an example of simple living and high thinking.

The suffering which he went through in 2001 for the children of the Society will never be forgotten.

Dr. B.P. Rao will always be respectfully remembered as a man of strong will – Honest – outspoken – and as a devoted father figure.

In his passing away humanity has lost a good human being.

May God give strength to his family to bare this irreparable loss. We pray – May his soul rest in Peace!

The Meeting then ended with two minutes silence to pray for his soul to rest in Peace!

Work purifies the heart and so leads to Vidya
