25 YEARS OF SERVICE & SATISFACTION

DINOO KHANNA

I knew Mrs. Tehminabai Dhage from 1956. But I came closer to her in 1982 and in May 1990. I spent a lot of time with her at Radha Kishan Home writing her biography which she read and approved; unfortunately, she passed away on 27th June, 1990 before the biography entitled "Amma" was published. On 27th June, 1991 Dr. Gowribai Kirtane released the book at a specially organized function at Radha Kishan Balika Bhavan.

Dr. Gouribai Kirtane releasing the Book "AMMA"

Mrs. Tehminabai's passing away created a large void. It is unexplainable how I involved myself into this gigantic task. There was an instant urge to serve – to try to be a mother of 144 orphan children. There was no planning for tomorrow- It was today -this moment – that really mattered. Then there was no looking back.

The aim of the society and the founder couple Shri. Venkat Krishnaji Dhage and Smt. Tehminabai Dhage was to give orphan and semi-orphan children a happy childhood and value based education. My role was to fulfill their dreams.

First step was to gain confidence of the children. Love them unconditionally; be compassionate and share their joys and sorrows while disciplining them to the core.

The reward – the satisfaction came in abundance when a child grew up, completed graduation or post graduation or passed out as an engineer, a medico nurse, a medical lab technician or a master in business administration. One feels short of words to narrate the joy experienced, considering the fact that these children have come from families who have never seen the light of literacy. They are often slum dwellers who have grown up in unhygienic and unhealthy environment. But they have proved that given an opportunity they can work wonders. They are amazing at cultural events, Music, dance, Art and craft and sports.

I was always approachable to share their joys and sorrows. But needless to say parents love can never be replaced. A happy family life is missing, No amount of material comforts could bridge the gap, and no matter how hard we try we cannot fill the void. Somewhere, a corner in the child's heart is empty.

In the past 66years Hyderabad Children's Aid Society, has given thousands of educated and civilized citizens. But this contribution is like a drop in the mighty ocean.

Mahatma Gandhiji said, and I believe, whatever we do will be insignificant. But it is very important that we do it. In a gentle way, we can shake the world.

44 marriages of orphan girls have been performed. Our well-wishers contribute and play a very important role in the marriage celebration. The brides come to their maika (mothers place) for the first delivery and are taken back by the husband and in-laws after 21days i.e., after the naming ceremony. They come to me to share their joys and sorrows as in a normal family.

Some children who have left the home and are well settled come at their convenience to contribute their mite. There are others who never look back. Yet there are a few who have a strong sense of belonging. They are ever ready to help the children and the staff in whatever way they can. These loving caring children are an asset to the homes.

It is admirable to see some students climbing the ladder of success with their own zeal, hard work and self created contacts. They are the pride of the society.

It is a very big responsibility to safe guard about 300 girls and boys, specially the teenagers. When children go out to schools and colleges we are anxious and stressed till they return. When children fall sick we undergo sleepless nights even though Hon. Doctors and our medico nurses are alert and very helpful.

The Trustees and the executive committee members gave me strength to handle this responsibility. They had total faith in me; which meant a lot.

The faithful, ever willing staff always stood by me and made me comfortable. They contribute a lot to the smooth working of the homes.

2001 saw some black days in these

25years. We suffered for no fault of ours. But truth triumphs – there is no doubt. We had faith in the Almighty – So life returned to normal – and all is well that ends well.

It was also very important to create a cordial bond with sponsors, donors and Well-wishers, to reply to their mails promptly. To make them feel important for their involvement for a good cause. We had to continuously work for the increase of funds. It was important to build trust – so that the donor is confident about his money being used for the welfare of poor children. Within a year people were sure that the society's children were in safe hands and that resulted in pouring in of funds.

The children, the management, the staff the donors and well-wishers became a large extended family working together for a noble cause to fulfill the dream of the Dhage couple.

25 years of service to the under privileged children has left beautiful memories. I believe, selfless service without any expectation gives immense pleasure and satisfaction.

I pray that Hyderabad Children's Aid Society sees many more glorious years in the service of the needy children.
